It's an art to take baby's photodimple. Such photographs become prized reminiscences of babyhood's days in

With Natives On South Sea Island

Crew of Wrecked Whaler Spent Over a Month There 50 Years Ago—Big Fight Between Monitor and Merrimac —Norwich Men and Officers in the Service.

The life event of the week fifty years ago was the engagement between the Monitor and the Merrimac, in which the Monitor was the victor after a four hours' fight. The Merrimac had caused considerable loss in Hampton Roads when the vessel designed by John Ericsson arrived and at once made things later, engaging the rebel craft and fought one of the greatest naval battles.
At home the newspapers of this city and New Haven were having a spirited engagement over the number of men they had sent to the front and the number of men that had received commissions in the respective cities. New Haven was holding up its head as much as Governor Buckingham was from this city that it was being favored, but The Bulletin contended otherwise and showed up the fallacy.
Bank dividends of good size were declared in these days. The street lighting question was being well discussed.
The gas company failing to keep the pipes cleared so that the gas would flow, it was Norwich by gaslight fifty years ago.

The following are items taken from The Bulletin of 1862 for the week corresponding with that ending Sunday: March 4, 1862.—The Thames bank has divided of four per cent. out of the earnings of the past six months.
If the rain that pours down at this rate we shall have more water than we'll know what to do with. You fellows down on Commerce street had better be getting the perishable commodities out of your cellars.

Col. J. M. Smith of the 52d Indiana regiment, which was engaged in the great charge which turned the scales at Port Donelson, is a Norwich man.
The whole number left behind at the Twelfth regiment was of sick and 25 deserters.
This splendid crew steamer Thames has been chartered by the government at $300 a day. She was recently launched at Mystic.
Aaron Cook of Bozrah has received the democratic nomination as senator from the Ninth district.
There were married at Lebanon March 1 John A. Williams and Sarah A. Avery, and Isaac G. Avery and Eliza W. Williams, by Rev. A. Liver-more.

March 5, 1862.—Thirty-six commissions have been issued in Norwich men since the war began, one per cent. in connection with the Connecticut regiments, in which there were three Norwich companies—requiring nine commissioned officers and Lieutenants in service with the state troops. Nine companies have been raised in Norwich, six of which are now in service.
Eight companies of carriage and four six-pounders, together with one hundred tons of fixed ammunition, passed through here last evening from Boston for the south, to be loaded at New London on Governor's island.

Norwich has sent a fraction over one-quarter and New Haven a fraction over one-fifth of her enrolled militia to the war, the former having 25 officers and the latter 106.
March 6, 1862.—The Chelsea Saving bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of one per cent.
We are informed that the reason why some of the street lights in this vicinity have not been burning of late is that the electric bell has become observed by the frosty weather and defused. From 10 to 15 have become useless from this reason. On the West side they have almost forgotten there is such a thing as street gas.

There are now about fifty recruits at Fort Trumbull for the Sixth and Seventh regiments, and others are arriving at the rate of four per day.
A letter received at New London yesterday told of the wreck of the whaler Clementis at a reef in the South Pacific ocean. The vessel sank in all hour and the crew after drifting eight days made St. Christoval's island, where the natives did what they could for them. The wreck was on Sept. 11, and Oct. 21 a schooner arrived there and part were taken to Sydney, while a boat was sent from there for the remains.

March 7, 1862.—Colonel Kingsbury of the Eleventh Connecticut, who has suffered from an attack of pneumonia in consequence of the privations endured in the West, is slowly recovering and is on his way home on furlough.
Captain Cray of the police, having charge of the street lighting, states that he reports regularly to the superintendent of the gas company all lights which fail to burn. Sometimes they require attention from the local President Lincoln has proposed to congress a definite line of policy respecting the emancipation of the southern slaves. To Abraham Lincoln belongs the honor of taking the first step. Let congress and the people show that they have the courage to follow.

March 8, 1862.—In the list of promotions in the New York regiments we notice that of Second Lieut. William T. Lusk of this city to a captaincy in the 75th. He is at present at Fort Monro as aide de camp on the staff of Brigadier General Stevens.
On Wednesday the Thirtieth regiment lacked only three men to make thousand. Battalion drill on the streets of New Haven daily and make a creditable appearance.
Dr. James B. Whitcomb of the Eleventh regiment at Hatteras, Ind., writes of the need of grayannel and woolen shirts, believing that if the men had such much sickness would be prevented. He felt that the New London and Windham counties could furnish these without feeling the expense.

March 10, 1862.—A letter from Ron-noko reported that a boy as in comfortable circumstances. It is reported that the Eighth regiment is to be left on Ronnoko island. Captain Moore has been in command. The writer has paid a visit to three rebel forts on the island and is surprised they were taken so easily.
John H. Worden will open a recruiting office today for the First Connecticut artillery in the postoffice building.
The recruits for this regiment will be sent forward to Washington immediately.

General Wool sent from Portraits Monroe the following despatch: The war vessel, the Monitor, and the Merrimac, fought, some of the time side to side, from 8 a. m. to noon, when the Merrimac retreated. Whether she is injured or not, is impossible to as-ertain. Lieut. J. M. Worden, who commanded the Monitor, handled her with great skill, assisted by Chief Engineer Stim-mer.

This followed a naval engagement in which the Merrimac was disabling all the federal ships.

March 12, 1862.—The regular monthly meeting of the Parish House association was held in the Osgood Memorial on Friday afternoon. There was a good attendance at the meeting, which was conducted by the vice president, Mrs. Ruth W.
Kimball. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Miss Elizabeth M.
Trumbull, and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Frederick Symington. Miss Lucile Peck gave two fine rendered violin solos, Mazurka, by Mlynarski, and the encore number, Mennott. In G. by Beethoven. Mrs.
Charles H. Haskett accompanied her.
The paper for the afternoon was by Mrs. Bela P. Learned, who gave a most interesting account of the old Spanish missions of California. These first outposts of civilization were established in the midst of the Indian tribes.
They were pathetic in their ending and wonderful in their ruins. We cannot say that America has not come out these ancient ruins still stand. And we are finding even older ruins of prehistoric people. She spoke of the courage and faith of these Franciscan missionary fathers, who built these splendid missions for the Indians. They were church, industrial school, and walled town in one, sometimes 5,000 Indian neophytes were gathered together. They were started by men from Mexico in 1769, beginning with that of San Diego. Following on up the coast were San Carlos, Monterey, San Antonio, San Gabriel, San Luis Obispo, San Juan Capistrano, San Francisco Dolores, Santa Clara, San Buenaventura, Santa Barbara, La Piedad, the Conception, Santa Cruz, La Soledad, San Jose de Guadalupe, San Juan Bautista, San Miguel, San Fernando, San Luis Rey, Santa Ines, San Rafael, and San Gabriel were the last. The Indians at San Gabriel were a superior tribe, with a wealth of music and folk songs.

Mrs. Learned sang three of these Indian songs, showing the beauty of Indian music. These were Canot's Love Song, Chippewa Prayer, and Lullaby. She told of the Landmarks club of California, which has organized for the purpose of preserving these old mission buildings, and she spoke elo-quently of the ill treatment the Indians have received from the United States government, and appealed for sympathy and aid in their behalf. The cheerful thought in these old ruins is that unlike so many ancient piles, there hovers over them a halo of good deeds of the past.
After the meeting refreshments were served by the social committee, Mrs.
Leonard O. Smith and Mrs. Edson E.
Gallaudet.

Unclaimed Letters.
The list of unclaimed letters at the Norwich, Conn., postoffice for the week ending March 9, 1912, is as follows:

ory Russell, Jacob Young, D. C. Sullivan,

In Motorboating for March appears two articles by former Norwich young men, Charles F. Chapman of New York and Lawrence E. Chapman of Groton, sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. B.
Chapman of this city. The former wrote on "Measuring and the latter on How to Design a Motor Boat. Both are very interesting articles.

NORWICH TOWN
Pupils at Town Street School Exhibit Hand Work of Much Merit—Lost Watch Restored to Owner.

Friday afternoon the pupils in Principal Tarbox's room at the Town street school had a fine exhibition of stencil work, done under the direction of Miss Mabel S. Webb, teacher in drawing. There were designs of flowers, leaves, fruit and conventional designs. In the finished pieces the edges were as clear cut as if stamped. Every pupil has work to show made from designs which he chose and copied; in some cases the designs were original.
Each design is sketched on drawing paper, then put on thin tracing paper and next transferred to stencil paper. This is the third year that stencil work has been done in the school and the work this year is artistic and excellent.

Out-of-Order Stomachs Feel Fine Five Minutes After Taking a Little Dianapain.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion, Dyspepsia or out-of-order Stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Dianapain.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.
People with weak Stomachs should take a little Dianapain occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undig-ested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Dianapain.

Go to your drugist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Dianapain now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you.
They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.
